Dear Sir

In consequence of Mr. B. Brinckman's Letter I have taken the King's pleasure on the subject of Holly Grove.

I am commanded to state, that His Majesty considers the purchase of this property by the Crown, to be very desirable, provided it can be done, at a fair price.

I have submitted to His Majesty what the Act of Parliament directs, as to the course to be pursued in the Law:

George Harrison Esq^r.

purchase of property for the Crown.

I am therefore further commanded to state, that H. M. must leave it entirely to the Treasury, to do, what under all the circumstances, may be thought most desirable.

I have the honor to be,
Dear Sir,

Yours very faithfully

Sir.

I beg to transmit to you, Copy of a Letter, address'd to me, by Mr Broadhead Brickman, at Mrs Broadheads desire; and I shall feel particularly obliged, by the favor of your answer, in writing, which Mrs Broadhead, wishes to receive, previous to my taking steps, for the disposal of the Property, in question.

I have the honor to be,

Sir.

(Copy) [Enclosure]

To A. Rains Esq
29 Conduit Street40 Berkeley Square
June 24th 1823.

Sir

As it is very desirable for my Mother to carry into effect as early as possible, her intention, of parting with Holly Grove, & although she conceives the result of your former communication with the Treasury, to have put an end to all negotiation, and that the same reasons which caused the rejection of your proposal at 20,000 equally applies to that of 18,000, which you were afterwards empowered to offer, both of which estimates, as being formed on the nature & circumstances of the property, she is aware greatly to exceed the value, when computed by any return that can be derived from it. She is however anxious, to have the certainty, that she cannot be considered to have been wanting in any degree, (consistently with her Duty to her Family,) in due respect to the wishes, she had reason to believe entertained, which dictated her sending in the first instance to Gov^t. the purchase at the price, she was led to believe, by the best opinions she could resort to, she ought to receive.

She requests you therefore, to wait upon Mr Harrison merely to apprise him of this feeling, & to ascertain whether it is his opinion, that there is nothing to prevent her disposing of the place in question, to any individual that may desire to become the Purchaser, particularly that whatever could be expected from her in point of respect, to the wishes she has before alluded to has been satisfied.

In doing this, I am particularly desired by her, to caution you, against allowing it to be supposed, that there is the smallest disposition on her part to make this communication, a means of renewing the negotiation, but that it springs simply & exclusively, from that sentiment of respect which she feels particularly due from herself & her Family, towards his Majesty & her anxiety to fulfil, whatever it requires.

I am Sir

Your Obed^t Servant

My Dear Friend

I have written you a public letter, by the King's Command, on the subject of Mr. Broadhead's property; H. M. seems anxious not to allow ~~the~~ it to pass from the Crown, yet it seems to me impossible to yield to the inordinate demand made by the Family.

I shall be greatly obliged by your expediting this loan of money ^{to the Woods & Forests} I mean to write to Mr. A. H. to day for the purpose of urging the completion of this purchase on the third of July.

I shall be glad if you will send me George Harrison Esq.

The Duchy warrant for the six thousand pounds, that I may also be sure of that by the third of July.

Were my good friend if this other sum could be forthcoming by that time, - it would be a matter of incredible advantage to the King's affairs.

I shall be in Devon to morrow in the afternoon, but whether I return on Sunday or Monday morning, I have not yet ascertained.

Believe me,

Ever your's most affectionately

I cannot express to you how greatly you have relieved me & how much obliged I am by yr very successful negotiation with Mr L. and how I could have encountered the difficulty tomorrow if you had not arranged this for me - you will render me an essential service if you w^d open the negotiation with

with Wallace & John Smith & Milne will tell you all we know of Mr Coventry - we c^d? certainly negotiate with the latter thro' ayton, but I think will show it to be preferable to take some other channel.

Write in haste as I am called away for shooting, but I w^d? not lose a moment to thank you - I sincerely hope you gain ground & I am

My dear Sir,

I believe Mr Westmore is disposed to repeat the offer he made some time ago of £7000 for Mr Coventry's Property at Bishopsgate, and Mr Coventry whom I have just now seen is inclined to accept it I think, provided Mr Westmore will agree to his removing the loose furniture which he (Mr C) has occasion for at Burgate. Have the goodness to let me know by return of Post what your opinion is, whether Mr Coventry had better close with Mr Westmore or run the risk of selling by Auction. I am writing in great haste I have not time to enter upon any other matters before the Post goes out.

Dear Sir,

I heard from Mr. Denton yesterday to say that in his opinion you had much better accept Mr. Westons's offer for Bishopsgate than run the risk of a public sale -

However I thought it would be as well before I wrote to Mr. Westons's Agent, to ascertain if possible whether His Majesty did or did not wish to purchase, and therefore Mr. Green has just been down to Whitehall to see Mr. Milne the Secretary to the Board of Woods to let him know the situation in which you stand and your anxiety to stand acquitted of any disrespect to the Crown, before you enter into a Contract to sell to another. -

Mr. Milne sent over to the Treasury immediately but Sir Charles Long, Mr. Herries & Mr. Harrison were all of them out of Town, but it seems orders have actually been given to treat with you for the purchase, and in all probability you will receive an official communication to that effect the beginning of the week -

I conclude it would be more agreeable to you to have the King for a purchaser, than to sell to a private Individual, as in the latter case you might possibly interfere with His Majesty's plans, and cause him some annoyance - Therefore unless I receive your directions to the contrary, I shall defer giving an answer to Mr. Neustead's offer for a few days to come -

I have the honor to be

My dear Sir,

this Morning
I have seen Sir Charles Long and the Chancellor of the Exchequer in pursuance of His Majesty's Commands, and I have written a Note this Day to Mr Coventry apologizing for the delay ~~with~~ ~~for~~ which has occurred in my commun-

It would be very satisfactory to me if you could make it convenient to be with me at the time of my communicating with Mr Coonty and Mr Deaton — and probably you would have the opportunity to communicate with Mr Deaton, and sit with him ^{on one of} the days ^{above named (the earlier in} ~~the~~ ^{and also the} ~~day~~ ^{later)} ~~and~~ ^{will} do me the favor to be here at the time appointed. I have written to his Majesty today to inform their ~~Highnesses~~
