Gen^l. Lloyd, whom I believe your Majesty knows, came from Brussels yesterday morning: He sent to desire to speak to me, saying that he had some News of Importance to communicate to Me; I have seen him this morning, & after having heard from him all he had to tell, I desired him to put it upon paper, & I send it your Majesty herewith. I cannot say that his Intelligence has made much Impression on me; & I should have doubted whether I ought to have sent it to your Majesty, if it had not been for the Character of Gen^l. Lloyd & the very earnest & confident manner, in which he delivered his Intelligence, to which I made him sign his Name.

I trouble your Majesty with some

Respect

Beating orders for your Royal Signature I add a letter from the Gentlemen of the County of Northampton a Copy of the Answer I have returned to it.

I add also a letter from Lord Macclesfield, giving an Account of what passed at the Meeting of the County of Devon.

Lord Haguel has been very near two in the County of Essex, but without success.

From your Majesty's

Dutiful Subject

C. Johnson.
