Sir

I am desired by Sir Benj<sup>n</sup>. Bloomfield to refer you, as on a former occasion, to the Office of Woods, Forests & Lands of the Crown, respecting the Rates assessed upon His late Majesty's Property at Kew, the same being payable in that department.

Amongst the Claims for these & other Rates recently forwarded to Sir Benj<sup>n</sup>. Bloomfield, he observes that some part thereof is charged upon Property late M<sup>r</sup>. Saunter's; and supposing this to apply to Premises purchased by His present Majesty, when Regent, which was not transferred (according to the intention at the time) for the purpose of being annexed to His late Majesty's other Property at Kew, Sir Benj<sup>n</sup>. is ready to undertake the payment in that respect, out of the Privy Purse, whenever he is furnished with distinct Accounts thereof, separated from the old Rates first above alluded to. Be pleased to communicate this to the other Officers of the Parish.

I am Sir Your most ob<sup>d</sup>. Servant

Gentlemen

As Treasurer of this Parish it is my duty to apply to you for the Payment of the arrears due from your Parish for the maintenance of <sup>your</sup> the Poor in our Workhouse, which arrears are now become too serious to admit of longer delay in the payment thereof, nor will our finances admit of their being longer withheld, in fact this Parish is compellable to prep for the amount and I must therefore expect to receive a satisfactory answer hereto in a very few days.

Sir

I have ventured again to enclose you the Accounts for Poor Rate, Church Rate, Highway Rate and Land Tax due from his Majesty to the Parish of New; and to solicit your interference on behalf of the Parish. I should not be so troublesome to you, but the Parish Accounts are getting so much in arrear, and the Claimants so very pressing; that it is quite out of my <sup>power</sup> to satisfy them in the least on the subject. The Parties considering it principally my neglect; the Parish Accounts never remaining so long unsettled, before. - and as the Poor are in a wretched state in consequence of the payments being so irregular, I have to beg you will have the goodness to present the accompanying Papers to the Rt. My dear Sir

The Collectors of Poor-rates &c. for the Parish of Kew have made repeated & urgent applications at Carlton House for the payment of different Rates, assessed upon the late King's private Property, which <sup>before the present Majesty's Accession were</sup> ~~used to be discharged out of the Privy Purse;~~ but since the Accession of His present Majesty these rates have been in arrear, ~~the Keeper of the Privy Purse considering it his duty to resist~~ the demand, <sup>has since been resisted</sup> on the ground of some intimation from Government that the Property in question, <sup>is considered by Government as</sup> ~~is~~ devolving on the King, jure corona, and incapable of being treated as a private Estate. Sir Bessy<sup>e</sup> Bloomfield ~~is not to be deemed His Majesty's~~ private Estate. Sir Bessy<sup>e</sup> Bloomfield has desired Mr. Atton & myself to seek an explanation on this subject at the Office of Woods & Crown Lands; and I request you to signify whether it will suit you to see us thereon next Monday at 12
oflock. <sup>If any other day in next week should be more convenient to you, be pleased to</sup>

Sir

It will be readily conceived how obvious it must be to the feelings of His Majesty to have the Parish of New put to inconvenience by the non-payment of Rates standing in His name, however improperly; and I am authorised to signify that there would be no hesitation in relieving the Parish, to the extent of the present Arrear of the Rates, if it could be done in any manner that might not furnish a precedent for establishing a claim upon the private funds of His Majesty, on account of Property not admitted to be His Majesty's private Estate, or at his disposal. Probably there would be an objection to giving a Receipt or receipts for the amount in some form that might obviate this difficulty; & I have therefore to request that you will confer with the other Officers of the Parish upon it, & signify the result at your convenience - I am &c - Robert Gray

Sir

In consequence of your having informed me yesterday Mr Wickens knows of a person that will take the land I occupy here immediately they leave to say I shall feel exceedingly obliged by your interference on the subject as I particularly wish to part with it from Rich<sup>d</sup> or James last I shall be happy to pay the incoming tenant a reasonable price for the keep of all the cattle from either period likewise be ready to pay the keep of my stock until Lady next or longer as might <sup>be</sup> agreed upon which probably would be an accommodation to both parties, the incoming t<sup>r</sup> of course to pay the Rent the t<sup>r</sup> from either of the aforesaid period your early attention will very much oblige & add to the favours already conferred on <sup>you</sup> yours

Dear Brent. 34852

7. January 1822

Having taken occasion to remind Sir Henry<sup>d</sup>. Bloomfield of the charge so unreasonably thrown upon the Prvy. Purse for supporting the Establishment at Kew; and of the disposition you had shewn for relieving this charge from the burthen, so far as it might be applicable to your department; — Sir Henry<sup>d</sup>. has desired me to say that he shall consider himself greatly obliged by your undertaking to bring the subject under the notice of the Treasury; and that he will most readily subscribe to any plan you may think proper to suggest for dividing the expediture, by allotting to the Prvy. Purse such Counties or Donations as may not be deemed incidental to the Acct. under your management.

If your having advanced £1500. could with propriety be noticed above, serving as an introduction of the subject, the return of it might still be deferred; but if you have the smallest wish to avoid such a disclosure, or doubt its fitness, I will be prepared for repayment before a fortnight has elapsed.

Believe me

To Mr. Bred

To bring the New Establishment under notice of the Treasury, that His Majesty's private purse may be released from the charge of it.

The advance of £1500. to be returned in a fortnight, if desired.

Parade Poole, 8 Jan 1822.

Dear Sir

I have this moment rec<sup>d</sup>. your obliging favor of yesterday (7th Inst<sup>l</sup>) with Mr Read's Indulgent in answer to which, I must own myself sorry to find him still proposing to quit the New Leases at Mich<sup>l</sup>. a Xmas last. that measure Sir I cannot, as a man of business, recommend. and it is what Mr Read, if he consults his Reason, cannot expect. How am I to find out the exact number of cattle depostured, and the exact number of days every animal has been fed thereon. it might lead to numberless disputes. If the next succeeding Tenant will agree with Mr Read to take the Leases off his Hands at any time in this last half year, so that his Majesty's Trustees may receive their rent to next Lady day. I presume no objection may be offered, but that is Mr Read's business, and not the Kings agents or Trustees or their Sub agent. Whosever allowance you Sir, and your honorable & worthy Colleagues may in your Money allow Mr Read, it is neither my duty or inclination to oppose in the slightest degree but Mr Read's Renting commenced at Lady day, and at Lady day it must end.

and, when you Sir, have seen Mr Nash and consulted with him, I will greatly thank you Sir, for a time, advising me if my personal attendance is required.
if so, you Sir, may be assured I will get up to London in the turn of a very few days after I am honored with your notice.

I believe Mr Eaton of the Royal Gardens
at Kew will be the future renter of Mr Reads Farm.
if Mr Nash approves of his offer communicated by my last letter to him.

I have the honor to remain with the greatest respect, Dear Sir,

your faithful most Obedt

Serv<sup>t</sup> J. Wickens.
