Friday night
near 12

Gen. Conway presents his most humble duty to his Majesty and begs leave to inform him that on the Question of Mr Greenwell's motion for an Address to your Majesty, in which were words for Prefering Laws in America, — the Division on the side of your M^y's servants & against the Question was 27 to 13.

A list of the Speakers is inclosed.

Mr Pitt came down & spoke, but did not decide Mr Greenwell who answered him, was much enraged to see him walk out of the House while he was speaking.

Your Majesty gave leave for the Duke of Richmond's Petition with your M^y's Permission — G. Conway will send off to him tomorrow morning, as it may be possibly of some consequence he should come in immediately

Lt. Genl. Conway tho' tis so very late I just chuse to acquaint y^e. I have receiv'd y^e. list of y^e. Speake, y^e. day, & y^e. very great Majority of y^e. Division, which I don't doubt greatly exceeds what y^e. expected; I have no objection to y^e. S. of Richmond: coming over as soon as y^e. please, indeed I had yesterday authoriz'd y^e. to write to him to y^e. effect.
