

Charles Jenkinson

3526

War Office
Wednesday
4th p. m.

I have just had an Interview with Lord Howe at his Desire in a very long & confidential Conversation with him; I will tell the whole to your Majesty when I pay my Duty to you; but as my Habitual is always the last, I thought it might in this manner to apprise your Majesty of it & to express a Wish that if the Chancellor comes to the Duke, you would see him, & have a kind & confidential Conversation with him.

From

your Majesty's Dutiful Subject
C. Jenkinson

