Mr Jenkinson has sent me an answer which he has received from Lt General Burgoyne, a copy of which, I humbly beg leave to lay before Your Majesty, as also a Draft of an answer to the said Letter, with a proposed alteration as

J

I humbly conceive, Your Majesty's accepting the resignation, may be more than what the Lieutenant General intended, and might be deemed severe usage.

Mr General Paucitt sat out on Saturday looking from London, I conclude, would arrive at his command yesterday.
