

Ld North
Downing Street Nov. 10. 1779

3581

The Lord Chancellor having appointed to meet Lord North today at two o'clock. Lord North is afraid, he shall not be able to pay his duty to his Majesty till half an hour after three when he imagines the Lord Chancellor will have left him: He has the honour of returning his Majesty's letter to Lord Weymouth with Lord Weymouth's answer.

Downing Street Nov. 10. 1779.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]