

ld. Weymouth

Nov. 20 1779

Lord Suffolk does not know that Lord Weymouth has seen the last letters, there seems to be no objection to their being communicated to him, but if he should know that Lord Weymouth had seen them before he may be offended that he concealed it from him.

Nothing material pass'd yesterday, the Chancellor has undertaken to correct the Speech, & there is to be a meeting on Sunday for the final settling of it.
