The Countess Dowager of Effingham.

Mar. 23 1788

My dear Effy. I know that in general You do not like Music in Holy Week. but I am to have this Evening
The Passion of Our Saviour set to Music by a German
The words in Italian. Now as I am sure this is quite according to Scripture there can be nothing improper in it, & if You would come it really would oblige me much, it begins exactly at Seven. I should have liked to have seen Sr George but the House of Commons prevents it. my Compliments to dear Lady Fanny Georgina, & little Fitzhard.

Adieu tout a Vous.
