My dearest Son. I have been in expectation all Yesterday to receive the Scotch Mail. But as it did not come I must now beg of You not to send it till my return from the Country which will not be till late on Monday next. When I hope <sup>also</sup> to hear that You <sup>have</sup> had a pleasant meeting with the Person You wish'd to see at the House of Lords when You left me Yesterday. I am just setting off for the Country & only add how sincerely I am

The 11th May Yours very affectionate 1792. Mother & Friend.
