My dearest Son. I return You my Sincere Thanks for Y<sup>r</sup> Congratulation & shall not fail to convey them to the King in Y<sup>r</sup> own Words when He comes Upstairs. The Prince of Saxe Cobourg hath indeed been truly Victorious & every Body seems equally happy God grant that it may be followed by many Succeeding advantages, & may the Spirit of the English Nation Spread over all the rest of Europe we shall then with the assistance of the Almighty be able to crush Our Enemies.

I am glad to hear that You are

I hope You will take care not to over fatigue Yourself in this cold Weather as it is more dangerous than to recover from a Blast occasioned by the East Wind.

Adieu de tout mon Cœur j'espère que Nous aurons encore bien souvent l'occasion de Nous revoir ensemble je ne fait pas moins en me souvenant

P. H.

à M<sup>me</sup> Mors 1793.

Votre très affectueux

Mère & Ami
