My dearest Son. I am sure You will be glad to hear that Yr Sisters have not only passed a very good Night but that Dr Gisborne assures Us they go on as well as Possible, a proof of which is His returning to London & being the bearer of this.
We shall certainly be at the Queens House to Morrow & stay till Friday after Church. We shall be glad to see You whenever convenient to Yourself.

The Princess return their best thanks for Yr Goodness & send their love in which I join most Sincerely & am the 16th April Yr very affectionate Mother
