My dearest Son. You have no reason to fear my Suspecting ^{you} of any Neglect in remembering me. The Present I reciev'd this Morning is a new proof with many others to the Contrary & though I am truly sensible of Y^r attention I am also sorry that You should have given Yourself so much Trouble about procuring me a Snuffbox which gave You so much difficulty to obtain.
I shall value it not only for its beauty; but for the sake of the donor who is & ever will be most dear to His
