

Mr. Huffer Puffer indeed to Day, for it is even Warmer than it was Yesterday. I hope you are not Fatigued & that the Princeps is well. I send a Fan which is a present to the Princeps of Mr. Bolton at Birmingham, which I am ashamed of having kept till now. The Sticks are not Wood, but Papier Maché & therefore curious & I think its Curiosity is its real Beauty. We are now preparing to leave Town, & provided We do not melt upon Our Journey I hope to see you to Morrow Morning. when I shall have the Pleasure of de Vous a suoi de Douche ^{de bien} Vous se Amie De

Sunday Morning.

Apr 17 95

Votre tres affectionné Mère
Charlotte

The Queen

to

The Prince of Wales

April 1795