My dearest Son. If ever You should have interest enough to recommend a Person for Mr Eliquet, I hope You will not forget me, for such must I appear now when I again trouble You ~~with~~ about Wednesday next. The Q<sup>d</sup> has just told me that when the Royal Family come to the Princeps all Her Family go out of the Room during their stay. & when they the Princesses leave Her, their Ladies are immediatly to be presented. Adio Caro Amico, ricor-
