I desired Eliza to write You a Note my dearest Son, very late on Sunday Night which I hope You have received by this Time as well as my Letter. On Sunday before Dinner I had a Conversation with the G^o relative to the Govern^{rs}, & I found that when G^d Archibald left the Princesses Family, the Princess & Princesses remained ever since with a Govern^{rs}. that being the case I wished very much to propose to You, to write me a Letter in which You will Commission me to ask the G^o, whether there is an Absolute Necessity for You to Name a Govern^{rs} upon this Occasion, This must bring it to a determination. with the only possible way to avoid making mistakes about the G^os meaning. You will of Course be so kind as to write Nothing else as I must shew the Letter a Not mention my having given You this Advice.

I have Succeeded in having secured one of the Doves.

which is the Daughter of Mrs Amos who hath lived & served Y^r Sisters for several Years & is a most excell^y Servant.

I saw the Duke of York on Sunday but never mentioning any thing about Mr Dashwood, this I think right to Name, for I never repeat what is told me.

We arrived here on Monday by 5 a Clock without any accident whatever, The Troops were all drawn Up to receive the Y^e & reached from the Turnpike to the beginning of York Buildings. it looked very handsome & the Y^e is this instant gone see them Manœuvre. Sr William Pitt is here & in appearance both well & in good Spirits. The Place itself is poor-ed, Neither Lodgings nor Houses to be found for any Money, The Company is rather good, & amongst the Number Mrs Howe's Friend, Happy Kelly. One Frigate came in this Morning, & the others are seen at a Distance

but I am unacquainted with their Names.
