The Prince of Wales

My dearest Son. Oh! how happy was I made of my return from Hampton Court when I saw ^{Ed} Jersey at the House Door & to hear the account of the Princesses delivery. God be praised all is well over, & I trust that the Young Lady will prove a durable Blessing to you. I should of course make many Congratulations upon the Subject, but my dearest Son my affection & Love to you is such, that not one Subject alone but every thing concerning yr Happiness is warmly felt & wished for by your ever affectionate Mother & Sincere Friend.

Charlotte

I beg my Congratulations to the Princess, & a Kiss to the Young Lady. I shall come to Morrow in Person. but do not tell the Princess.
