

The Queen
to
The Prince of Wales

24th Sept.

My dearest Son, We are now very busy in settling Our Ball for the 29th. & after due consideration ~~that we should~~ find it more civil to invite the Prince of Wales upon the Occasion. I thought it right to inform You of it before she knows it, which shall not be till Monday as that will give Her Time to prepare Her Dress. This is I hope a proof of my never taking any Steps about what regards Your Family without informing You of it first. I hope it will prove a Merry party as the Coaches will be here also & more Company than was originally intended Frogmore is still the Place, as it will be best for me, & it must always be pleasant to me when I enjoy^r Yr Company. I will not detain You any longer but to assure You how unalterably I am the 24th Sep^r.
1796.
Your ever affectionate Mother & Friend. Charlotte
