My dearest Son. This Day is too happy as to let it pass without a few ^{writing} lines to You which will but poorly express the Feelings of my Heart upon the return of little dear Charlotte's Birth Day. May this Sweet Child prove a Blessing to both Parents, & as She increases in Years may She be the Cause of changing every unhappy moment which You have passed into moments of Felicity, that this may prove true is the Sincere Prayer of my dearest Son.

Windsor
the 7th January 1797.

Your very affectionate Mother & Sincere Friend.

Charlotte

The small little Packet which accompanies this contains Trivial Presents from myself & 2^d Sisters, in part ~~put~~ lying on the Cross upon ~~the~~ Child's Neck. a sincere wish goes along with it. that Her Crosses may never be Heavier.
