I am truly sorry for the reason which prevents my seeing you, but hope that with a steady adherence & obedience to the Drs prescription, you will soon be well enough to come out again, when I hope you & I shall settle some things of consequence to yourself which I have much at heart, which indeed is always the case with every thing concerning you.

In attendant I will name it which gives you time to consider it, it is relative to the Successor of Miss Gorth. & considering every thing I think that Mrs Halifax the late Bishop of Gloucester's Widow would be the most eligible Person if she could be persuaded to accept of it, there may be some difficulties to overcome, she has so many Daughters, but the eldest being almost a grown up Woman, & the House of Gr^{ve} Lokes perhaps being offered her for that purpose, might perhaps induce Her to undertake it, add to this Her great attachment to the Family & the Propriety of Her Conduct in the severest Trials makes me flatter myself that it will be worth trying. This is all I have to say for the present, think it over my Dear if you please & let me know Your opinion when I see you. You are sure that None can ever be so happy & desirous to assist you than

Y. H.

Your affectionate Mother

The 5th May.

& Sincere Friend
