My Dearest Son. Never did a Letter arrive in better Time than Yours, for the 29 was just come in from His wally, & I communicated Aldermen Mesurier's Letter immediately to Him & He bids me say, that as the Corps wishes it & it can make them happy He can have no objection to yr appearing with them.

I shall with Pleasure remember yr two recommendations of Miss Poynter, & Miss Macrae, when in my power, but by Carnarvon having acquainted me on the Friday of the Death of Mrs Herbert, I immediately named Mrs Waldegrave Her Successor who as well as many others has at least been twelve Years upon the List.

I am sorry to learn by yr Letter that Yr Health is not so much improved as I would wish, but I hope with care & quiet it may soon be brought about again, so that we may soon have a merry meeting which can never be too often nor too soon for

My dearest Son
