

AA

12. Aug. 1799

GEO/MAIN/36513

I hope to be the first whose Congratulations you will receive to Day. They are not only truly Sincere but such as an affectionate Mothers Heart dictates upon the Occasion. & therefore comprized in very few Words. May You be Blessed with every Thing that is good, & may Prosperity attend You every where, & may You be so Fortunate as to enjoy the affection of the truly good & Virtuous, & may You never be in want of a Sincere Friend. This is the Sum Total of my Hearts Eloquence. To this ~~letter~~ I add an Antique Present which I beg You to accept of & it suits well me think with the unalterable attachment & Sentiments of

My Dear Sons,

Windsor
the 12th August.
1799.

Antique by affectionate Mother.
Charlotte

Mr. Green to
Mr. Prince of Wales
12th Aug. 1799.