I am beset by all sorts of People & my Head is quite stupified, but As I see by the Papers that the Duke of Württemberg's Brother is arrived in England, I am obliged to execute yo^r Sisters Commission who begs in the Dukes Name that Nothing but common Civility may be shown to Him. His Princeps as He calls Her who accompanies Him, was an Actrice whom He kept for some time & ^{ended in} ~~then~~ marrying Her, & therefore Not Countenanced by the Family. & of Course can not be received here.

I have seen Kelly with the Drawing for the intended Print you sent me. I find the Idea pretty & Elegant & if the yo^rs Lifenss can be secured the my ensure Himself success. I now take my leave & am unalterably

Your affectionate Mother & Friend. Charlotte

I am sorry to hear of your illness and hope you are is quite recovered but do not let the papers that the Duke of Wellington's health is so in London, I am obliged to write to you congratulate you on the Duke's recovery but cannot finally say to whom them. The Duke is the one who means them, was an officer when the Duke has some time been in the army. The Duke was sent to the Duke of Wellington's and he was in the Duke's
