My dearest Son. I am sorry to see that at this present moment all Idea of Summer is vanished, as I wish to invite You for the 14th ~~at~~ the Day fixed for a Fete a Frogmore in honour of the 24th of June where I hope to see all the Royal Family that are here at present. & was the little Girl well enough & the fatigue not too much, I should be happy to see her grace my ^{Fete} ~~Place~~ likewise. having said this You will of course understand that the Princess is of the Party, I trust it is unnecessary for me to say ^{how} happy your presence at all times makes Windsor.

The 10th June
