My dearest Son. I am this moment put in possession of one of the finest Prints I ever saw for which I want words to express my Gratitude as well as the pleasure it has occasioned me. This was indeed a very agreeable Surprise, & toute la Bande joyeuse by which I mean Your Sisters, are in hopes that You will sometime hence treat them with the same present.

I wrote this Morning to You & find Our Letters have Crossed upon the Road, I must always feel Sincere regret in being deprived of Your Company but particularly so upon this Occasion when I had flattered myself to join altogether in celebrating a Birthday which at this Time twelve Months we had so little reason to expect of doing again. & in which I am sure You most heartily Concur.

I will now not detain You any longer upon this Subject as I am sure You will always act right. I beg once more to return You Thanks for the invaluable Present & beg You to believe that Present or Absent

You will ever be remembered with Pleasure & Friendship by

Windsor Your affectionate Mother
