My dearest Son. I have just seen the
A. B. of C. the D^{os} Montrose & Lord Winchelsea. They came with a proposal, of making Dr J. Willis consult with His Brother John upon the Dear Y^{rs} present Situation, but not with the Idea of seeing them ~~in~~ unless it was absolutely necessary. Knowing the Y^{rs} Distige to the Man & the promise the Y^{rs} extracted from me of never letting them come into His Presence or again in to the House. I felt a great reluctance upon the Subject, but upon their staying that the length of the Complaint, & the little progress produced by the diff^{erence}

Tryals which have been attempted not succeeding they felt it their Duty to make this proposal, I immediately answered, that I was desirous that not even an Interview between the two Brothers should have ^{place} without the whole Family being first apprized of it. You will The A B will wait upon You accordingly & through Y^r means the rest of Y^r Brothers will be informed of it. as by this candid Conduct I feel I must be justified in the Y^r Eyes.

I trust that unless it is absolutely Necessary that J. Willis will not see the King. Pardon this sad scrawl but I thought this too soon
