My dearest Son. Col. Taylor having received Y^r Orders to come to London I take this opportunity of Informing You that I have received this Morning an answer from M^r Perceval to the Paper I sent Him on Tuesday, in which He has explained very Circumstantially what He intends to propose. I shall make no comment upon the Subject excepting that notwithstanding all the Trouble He has taken it must & will ever remain unpleasant upon one Subject which nobody can judge of but myself.

I hope You will agree with me that M^r Perceval whom I now will see on Sunday should speak to Bro Winchelsea ~~to~~ to know whether or not He will accept of the proposed Situation intended for Him.

I am sorry to hear You are not so well since since Sr Henry left London He will attend You at the stated Hour & I beg You will if possible not detain Him very long, as His presence is of great consequence here this Day on account of the Consulting Physicians. who will be here on account of Saturday. I trust Sr Hth will bring us a good account.

My dearest Son
