

24 Nov. 1813.

GEO/MAIN/

36663

My dearest Son. "Pourquoi faut-il sentir ce que "la Plume ne peut pas exprimer." So says Madame de Sevigné, & She speaks Truth, for at this moment I am so overcome with ~~the~~ Joy, that even a Trial to express my Feelings would be in vain to attempt.
I can only offer You my Sincere Congratulations upon the Happy Recovery of The Electorate & the Addition of Hildesheim an Event which I am Confident will prove a Blessing to You, & not less so to ~~the~~ ^{here} Countrymen who were always renowned for their Loyalty to their Sovereign. & now I can only add God be praised for ^{this} You & God Bless You as the best wish of

My dearest Son

Windsor

the 24th Nov^r.

1813.

Your affectionate Mother & Friend

Charlotte

The Queen to
The Prince Regent

24th Nov. 1813

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. Some words like "I have" and "I am" are faintly visible.]