My Dearest Son. Tho' almost Drunk with Joy, there is Sense enough left to return You thanks for Your kind Letter as also for the Great news which it Conveyed.
The Hand of Providence has been particularly Manifested towards Us of late & I am Confident that by Your Pursuing that Steady & Upright Conduct which always has been the Character of this Nation & to which I feel Proud You do belong, The Almighty will Support & Bless Our Arms. — Except then my dearest Son my most Sincere Congratulation upon this New obtained Victory by Lord Wellington over Soult & my Sincerest Wishes, that not only all the French, but all Your interior Enemies may equally be put down.

My Dearest Son.

Your ever most Affectionate Mother & Sincere Friend
Charlotte

In my hurry of last Night I forgot to return
You thanks for the account You gave of my Brother I hope to see Him in the Spring at least I will not give up all Hopes.

I shall most certainly have the Band & make them May Command Posters & most heartily join in their Chorus.
