My Dearest Son. It is so seldom that I can surprise any body, that I feel quite pleased with myself for having thought of something that will make you crayon estil possible. The wonder is neither more nor less than intending to have a small Party at the Queens House to Morrow Evening the 28th not a la maniere de Caston House, but about a 150 or 200 People, & if you should like to take a quiet Dinner with me en Famille.
I will order it at ~~the~~ six that we may have a little Time to Breathe before the Company comes. — Repondez sil vous plait Oui ou Non & believe me ever your affectionate Mother & Friend
Charlotte

The real truth is that knowing none of Your Servants being at Home & the D. of York having still the Princess in His House & Adolphus having had a Party, I might perhaps by coming forward at this moment present Your feeling any Distress about my Amusement^s of which You are always so kind to think & which I ~~am~~ almost most Sensibly feel tho Incapable to repay.
