My Dearest Son. I have the Pleasure to Inform You, that I delivered Your Present to Charlotte which occasioned great Satisfaction & I believe that before this can come to Your Hands She will have acknowledged Your Kindness by Letter.

I had half an Hours Conversation with Her on the 8th to which She was very attentive & after having left me expressed Herself as pleased with what had passed between us both to Mary & Augusta— She had a Visit from the Dutches of York who observed me that She was extremely reasonable in Her Conversation, particularly so when She talked upon the Subject of the Grand Duke's declaring that she felt no partiality towards Her, & that the last Visits which passed between them were most disagreeable & that she was a very Intriguing Women. The Prince of Orange was of Course not Named but she ~~thinks~~ assured the Duke of York that being convinced that you had the Power over Her Person, she was determined to Submit entirely to your will. the same Language she has held I believe to some of your Sisters which encourages me to believe Her sincere in Her Professions.

I have had a Letter from Stuttgart announcing to me by the desire of the Princess Royal the Divorce between him & the Princess Royal. She has left Stuttgart & is at present with Her Aunt the Duchesse de Deuxpont, Yr Sister comments this Event ~~with~~ very much as Nothing can be alledged against the Princess, but Her Ungliness, for She is a Fine Figure, mild in Her disposition Talented & uncommonly well behaved & with the ^{by} Yrs Leave & the Princess Royal desire Your Sister is to keep up a constant Connection with Her. — No further particulars are mentioned, but I have the Promise of having the whole communicated to me, to justify the Princess conduct upon the Occasion. If the report

The Queen
to

The Prince Regent
You mentioned when I last had the Pleasure of seeing You is True, I think 11th Sept. 1814.

The Prince will not gain either more Beauty nor perhaps so mild a Disposition in His Second choice as in the first mais c'est son affaire.

The Saint is delighted with His party, He talks in raptures of the Owners of the Place, the Place itself, & lastly of Your Kindness to every Body, I fear He will not like His return to God Chesham's quite so well, for there is no Company at all.

They to be remembered to William & that you will believe me most sincerely.

Windsor Palace
the 11th Sep^r 1814.

Ever Your affectionate
Mother & Friend
Charlotte
