General Addenbrookes answer being just arrived my dearest Son, I think You will be glad to see that He is perfectly ready at a minutes warning to obey Your Commands, He expresses Himself so well that I could not refuse myself the pleasure of Inclosing it to You, and also to prove that Yr Commissions were quickly executed.

I have had a long Letter from Württemberg, Your Sister is better but has been very ill with a Rheumatic Fever for which She has kept Her Bed very nearly three Weeks and is still very wear and languid, She seems very uneasy about the Prospect of the Congress being likely to last much longer and that the Vienna Air and Amusements will prove pernicious to the Kings Health. it however seems to cure others of many whims for Y<sup>r</sup> Friend the Grand Dutches Dances at every Ball therefore the Dislike to Music must be overcome and Harmony restored to Her Nerves. —

Talking of Harmony it makes me think of the Divine Cecilia who I fear is a going, She was seized some Days ago with a Spitting of Blood, and Quinsas

She is very apprehensive about Herself but convinced that the least Amendment in Her Complaint will make her give up the Doctor, as She always did when Medical advice. Should She go off you will lose a great Admirer.

I hope all the Complaints mentioned in Your Letter to Mary are removed, they were represented with so much Humour that I can not say they made us very uneasy and L<sup>d</sup> Henry St. assured Me that du Paves Letters were very Satisfactory.

I beg You will remember me kindly to the Duke of Clarence, I see by the Papers He takes His usual walk every Day which makes our mind very easy about Him.

I will not detain You any longer You must have by this Time enough of my dullness, but believe me always Sprightly when I subscribe myself 1814-

My dear Sir

By the time you had come to the conclusion of your letter of the 30th past, I am persuaded that you anticipated my reply - under circumstances so flattering as the honor conferred on me by Her Majesty's sanctioning His Royal Highness The Prince Regent's proposition for honoring me with the permission to attend on Her Royal Highness The Princess Charlotte it could not be doubted but that I should feel proud of such distinction, consequently that I should avail myself, and accept without hesitation the trust offered me - 'tis not for me to say that I am equal to all that may be wished from hope, that, under circumstances, of Her Majesty's, and the Prince Regent's indulgence, with the friendly instructions of General Garth, & with every possible attention, and exertion on my part, to fulfil the object expected from me, that the result will at least prove that I am most anxious to render myself in some degree worthy of the honor intended to be conferred on me -

My intention is to leave this on Saturday, and proceed on Sunday to Highfield; previous to Tuesday, or whenever you should wish me to meet General Garth, I shall be prepared to obey your summons - in London I am lodged in General Gordon's House 11.º 4 Dean Street, Park Lane - if you wish, or rather if you will
