My Dearest Son. I take the earliest opportunity of Informing You of the Death of poor Mrs Fielding the account of which I have just received. I do indeed feel it deeply as she was tho sometimes very Absent a very Excellent Amiable Woman & most truly attached to the Royal Family & particularly to You. Of course the Apartment <sup>at St James</sup> belonging to the First Bedchamber Woman she occupied will fall to the rest which I mention for fear that ~~that the~~ <sup>that the</sup> Chamberlain might be acquainted with this Rule: No possession can be taken of it immediately untill Lord Winchelsea's return who must I believe settle

Her Affairs when He comes back, I beg pardon for this trouble but I would not lose a moment to give You this Information, as the only means of preventing You having any applications about the Apartment.

I am glad to hear of the arrival of Young Planta, He will have much to tell I hope You Slept well last Night, I dreamt of nothing but Lauenburg, this arrangement is a coup de Grace but I will not dwell upon this disagreeable Subject & turn to a better & more pleasant one that of Subscribing myself

My dearest Son

Your ever affectionate Mother
