My Dearest Son, I take up my Pen to inquire after Your Health in the turbulent Times as also to Convey to You my most Sincere wishes that You may soon & very soon see public Tranquillity restored to the Metropolis — Your Expression in the Letter to Eliza of being Decided to follow the Kings Example in a Similar Situation is so soothing to my Feelings & does You so much Honour that I cannot doubt Your Endeavours will be Crowned with the same Success & that You will be able to say like Him I have saved the Country as I am sure without His Firmness nothing else could have crushed such a Tumult.

We are all anxiety about what is a going forward & determined not to give belief to any Tale

^{only give credit to} report, but what comes from good Authority.

I went to see Charlotte Yesterday who is confined with a Cold owing I believe chiefly to checked Perspiration, both Batteseombe & Friar Pope have seen Her, & ordered Warm Bathing & a Dose which I Trust will soon enable Her to come out again, She was in good Spirits & rather unhappy of being confined to the House.

I will not trespass any longer upon Your precious Time & only add how Sincerely I am My dearest Son

Windsor
the 8th March

1815.

Your ever most Affectionate Mother

& Sincere Friend

Charlotte
