

Windsor the 27th Jan^y 1816

My Dearest Son. We are all greatly rejoiced by the good accounts we received from G^od Bloomfield about Y^r Amendment & are in Hopes that S^r H. H. will not only be enabled to confirm it but to Encourage Our Hopes & Expectations of a Speedy Recovery.

I have not had the Pleasure of seeing Charlotte since Our return from Brighton but I had a Visit from G^r Short who assures me that She talys with great pleasure & Satisfaction of Her Visit to Brighton & Y^r Kindness to Her - She certainly by what I can find out keeps true to Her promise of not Naming the Prince of Coburg, for when the D^r remarr'd to Her that Her looks indicated real Satisfaction and Happiness. She answered, Yes, & now we will not say any more about ^{it} that may satisfy You — She also told him that She was not Inclined to invite any of Her Friends to stay with Her in the House for the present as She wished to be quiet, & is very desirous that neither Monsieur Starre, nor M^r Wüpper should come down, which I took the Liberty to encourage, as it must be very Uncertain under the present Circumstances to fix any Time for Her remaining in the Country, & as the Season is so far advanced it would be a very Unnecessary Expence to bring them down ~~to the~~. Mr Short's Family is still in the Country & as He has agreed to stay in the House with Her at Franburn He will with yr leave go for a few Days back to them & settle His Affairs in such a manner as to leave them in His Living until He goes to settle in Town. — The Drs remaining solely with Charlotte at this Moment I look upon as very advantageous, for She has a great opinion of Him & He enjoys most of Her Confidence

Being Mild in His Disposition, and Prudent in His Conduct, is a Person to have immediate recourse to in point of need— May I beg that by G^d Bloomfield You will merely send an answer to say that You approve of the arrangement, & that I may show to G^d Short.

I hope that the Fatigue of Learning which I know You must have will not increase yr Pain & that You will take great Care of Yourself by being Obedient to the G^ds Orders.

Ever Your affectionate Mother and Sincere Friend Charlotte.
