Windsor April. 10. 1816.

My Dearest Son. The proofs which You have at all times afforded to Your Sisters - of Your anxious Desire to promote their Comfort, and to provide for their Suitable Establishment, offer a sufficient Persuasion to Me that You will forgive My Suggesting at a period when Charlotte is about to relinquish the Occupation of Cranbourne Lodge, how happy You would make Augusta by granting to Her the Occupation of it during Your Pleasure - She is ignorant of My addressing You upon this Object, in the Attainment of which I own that I feel most deeply interested. I should not however have now ventured to bring it forward if I had not Understood that You had given up the thoughts of pulling down Cranbourn Lodge, at which I Sincerely rejoice, aware as I am of the dear King's Partiality to that beautiful Spot for a Residence and If I had not satisfied Myself by frequent Visits to it that the House will not be upon too large a Scale for Augusta whose Predilection for an Establishment in the Country is well Known to You.

Believe Me ever

My dearest Son

Your very Affectionate Mother and Sincere Friend

Charlotte
