My Dearest Son. I have the Pleasure to Inform You that I went Yesterday to make a Friendly Visit to dear Mary & am able to state with the greatest Truth & without Exaggeration that I found both the Duke of Gloucester & Herself most rationally Happy & Comfortable. The House tho' not large is convenient, & the Place notwithstanding its retired Situation very Pleasant, Some parts of the Ground very pretty & possesses according to Mr Browns Expressions some Capabilities of which I am sure they will take advantage in Time as both seem Inclined to do so.

The Dinner on Tuesday is to be sewed at Five a floor, & if you will be there by Four it will give You Time to see the House of my man I name this Hour only as perhaps the most convenient to you, but any Hour or Time You choose to be there, they assured me would be agreeable to them.

I hope that You feel no longer any Inconvenience of either the Heat or the Cold I did hear You complained of & beg You to believe me unalterably my dearest Son
