My dearest Son. I have this Morning received the Order for the Mourning which is quite right for You, but situated as I am, I must for Decencies sake put on Parents Mourning & wear Bombazine for a Month which will lengthen it only a Fortnight longer than Y^{rs} - of course Y^r Sisters & all those who belong to the Y^{rs} & My Family must appear ⁱⁿ the same which I thought it right to apprise You of that Our appearance may not surprize You - I shall put it on on Thursday change when You change.

I have just had a letter from Adolphus who talks of setting out for Studport as Yesterday & Hopes to be there by Friday. Oh how Happy it will make Your poor Sister.

I beg You to believe me Present or Absent Ever

My Dearest Son
