My dearest Son. Tho I flatter myself that Your Sister Mary as well as the Duchess of Clarence have not omitted to give You my best love, I can not withstand the temptation of writing a few Lines to repeat my thanks for all yr kind attentions ~~that~~ During My stay at Brighton. You may be assured I have & do feel it most deeply & can with Truth say that it is not worn away upon an Ungrateful Heart.

You will be glad to hear that Our Journey was performed without any Accident a certain ~~of~~ proof of what is that we arrived here at half past Four. I found Dear Sophia better than I expected tho' there still rem-mains a good deal of Fever about her of course as long as that remains her Great Danger will not decrease.

The dear King is in a very composed state thank God. I am going there now I immediately which obliges me to release you reading a long insignificant letter to which I must still add My hearty wish for your Wellfare in which none can be
