

Ld. North

No 74 (1779)
Lt. Fawcett & Mr Dundas's offer to raise a Regiment

3680

Ld North has the honour, in the absence of Lord Amherst, to transmit to his Majesty an offer of a Regiment to be raised in Great Britain for home service which has just been put into his hands by Lord Fauconberg & Mr Dundas.

They are going down to York & & wish to know whether such a Regiment will be acceptable to his Majesty.

Ld North believes that there can be no doubt of the regiments being speedily raised if accepted.

as there will be a meeting in the North Riding of Yorkshire in a few days, Lord North believes that it will be of great consequence to Lord Fauconberg & Mr. Dundas to receive his Majesty's pleasure soon & therefore, has undertaken in Lord Amherst's absence to send the proposal to his Majesty.
