My dearest Son. Now the Imperial Visitor has left You I will Intrude upon Your Time & return You thanks for Your kind inquiries after me ~~that~~ during my Illness of which I do assure You my Heart feels most truly gratefull. I am thanx God almost quite recovered Certainly free of Complaint but not yet Stout upon my Legs which I do all I can to Regain in order to perform well by the 1th of next Month, but I must remarr that I find when the 2 come before 7. I get up My Strength much quicker than now when the 2 ~~follows~~ follows the 7. but be that as it may I have no reason to Complain for Providence has granted Me a Fine Constitution which I think it my Duty & also feel great Inclination to be carefull of that I may be enabled to enjoy the ^{many} Blessings it has pleased that Providence to bestow on Me.

I fear we from Windsor
 I will with ajsue

News of course you will not expect from this Place, Our dearest Elyza is recovering fast, Dear Sophia not worse, & the dear P. comfortable in every Sense.

The Waters are out every where & the Inundation increases every Hour since Saturday I find the Thames is again over the Road by Vatchel & the Road by Slow the best to come to Windsor & as there is great threatening of more Rain

I fear we shall soon be obliged to swim from Windsor to Eaton.

I will now finish my dull Epistle with assuring you how sincerely I am Your dearest Son
