

20 Nov 1817

GEO(MAIN)

36805

My Dearest Son. I avail myself of Sr B. B's return to London to assure You that I as well as the rest of the Family are as well as possible after the Melancholy Ceremony of Last Night & We all feel Equally anxious to learn that You feel not Essential bad Effects of the Hurry & anxiety You have gone through within this Fortnight of which the Beaver of this promises to give Us an account when He has seen You.

I hope that the Sea Air & Change of Scene will contribute greatly to Strengthen both Your Body & Spirits & that ~~our next~~ ^{our next} meeting may be more 20833

Chearfull than the last.

My meeting with the Prince of Soubise took place a little after two. I never saw any Man more deeply Wounded, nor more Rational in His Grief a ~~little~~ Dr. Short is of opinion that it will take considerable Time for Him to Recover but that His Religion will Support Him under this Heavy Affliction & there is much to be expected from the Mildness of His Character to contribute towards the Recovery of His Spirits.

I rejoice to see so Fine a Day for Your Journey it will make the Roads better & helps to cheer the Spirits of

20. Nov. 1817

GEO/MAIN/

36806

Both I hope You will feel the good Effects as Speedily as possible which will of course be of great Comfort to hear by.

My Dearest Son

Your very affectionate Mother & Sincere Friend

Charlotte

Windsor

Nov^r 20th

1817.

The Queen

30808 to

The Prince Regent

Nov. 20th 1817