Windsor Dec^r 31^d 1817.

My Dearest Son. I have the Pleasure to Inform You that the Duke of Clarence set off at Ten a Clock for London to meet Count Münster at Two & that He promises very faithfully to be Silent upon the Subject in Question being sensible that the less is said & the fewer people are made acquainted of such a Project which Demands much Consideration & reflexion the better it will be, & He is so perfectly Convinced of Your wishing Him well that the Complying with Y^r Request of being Silent will not Cost Him any Difficulty.

I rejoice to hear that S^r H. H. Advice has been attended ^{to} with good effect & that You begin to recover both in Body & Spirits to which I hope that a little variety of Company with the addition of Your Evening Concerts will contribute much towards recovering Your Strength by the Time Your Duty must Call You back to London, a Time to which I look forward with Pleasure for a very happy meeting

This will probably reach You on the first Day of the Year & much as I could have wished to be the first to Congratulate You I feel my Incapacity of making an Impossibility possible by my absence but I yield to Nobody in the Sincerity of my Wishes for Your Prosperity & Wellfare & assure You that could the Pen express what the Heart feels my Paper would not be large enough to contain the overflowing of a Mothers Heart - In a few words I will only state that No Season can ever change the Love & affection I always had & ever shall entertain for You.

My dearest Son

Ever Your affectionate Mother and Sincere Friend
Charlotte
