

H. N. to Lord North.

3739

Printed House II 310

Queens House March 9th 1780.
on 58. p. 4. A.M.

It was easy to conceive that if the Question could be put alone on the abolishing of the third Secretary of State, that the disinclination that has in general existed against that Arrangement, and no small prejudice against the present Professor, would make it very difficult to reject it, consequently the Division does surprise me, and I trust Lord North will have less trouble in rejecting the subsequent Clauses.

9 Mar 1980