

H. N. to Lord North.

9 Mar. 10 1780

? about 10 Mar 1780

3740 Queens House ^{on} W. Co. Ach
_{sq.}

My dear Lord North,
I should be glad if you are not too fatigued after so many long days if you could call here at any hour most convenient to you this Evening, I have just seen Sir Fletcher Norton, who assures me, he never saw you speak with more credit to my service than the last night, by your conduct through the whole of this business gives me infinite satisfaction

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]

? 10 Mar 1780