I have not the smallest doubt that the Speaker has pleaded illness to enable the Opposition to pursue their amusement at Newmarket the next Week; the Adjourning for so long a time can alone be intended to delay the business; I hope it will not succeed, as I flatter myself the friends of the Constitution will think it their interest as well as duty to stay and attend and the others will not be able to keep their Enemies in Town in such large Numbers.
