

Lord North
Downing Street April 26th 1780
25. p. 7. P.M.

3787

Lord North was advised by Sr Warren rather to stay at home today if possible than to go down to attend the House, which he has done accordingly, & is glad to find that his absence has retarded no business, but that the Malt Bill & the Currency Bill have both been read the second time.
He takes the liberty of inclosing to his Majesty a short account of what pass'd

Downing Street. April 26th 1780
25. p. 7. P.M.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]