

H.M. to Lord North

3796

Queens House, May 4th 1780

on 1st 7. A.M.
25 p.

The Divisions in the course of Yesterday were certainly very favourable to Government and nothing different could have been wished, but that the business should have been concluded without detaining Gentlemen in so confined an Air to so late an hour, I hope Lord North has not materially suffered from it.
