

H. L. Luthrell to Lord North

No. 3

38047

My Lord I shall have the honor of waiting on your Lordship tomorrow. Mr Robinson having communicated to me your wish that I should do so. Mr Robinson having however thought proper sitting near me in the House to endeavour to jerk out of me in conversation something of my intention with respect to the matter in question; I was obliged to change my seat telling him I was apprehensive many in the House seeing the apparently in close conversation together, might think that I was under the guidance of your Lordship as Minister; which certainly not being the case I would not suffer him to exhibit an appearance of.

I have the honor to be your Lordship's most obedient humble servant

H. L. Luthrell

Right Honorable Lord North
