

H. H. to Lord North

3809

Queen's House, May 20th
1780 ^m 25 p. 9. A.M.

I was glad to find by the Note I received last Night from Lord North that the business of the day had ended so well; I had feared that the improper Motion of Sir Isaac Adair might have taken up more time and have consequently prevented the finishing the Malt Bill.

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]

20 May 1780